Situation:

The A16 Reference assembly, p/n N9020-60188, contains revised circuitry due to parts discontinuance, and the control of this new circuitry requires that the instrument software be updated on early instruments. Instrument specifications are unchanged.

Solution/Action:

The Instrument software must be revision A.10.52 or later for the Reference Assembly to function. The latest N9030A PXA software can be down loaded for www.agilent.com/find/xseries_software
